

Technical Advisor I, II

Career Opportunity in Cambridge Bay

The Nunavut Impact Review Board (NIRB) is an Institution of Public Government with responsibilities for the environmental assessment of projects in Nunavut as described in Article 12 of the Nunavut Agreement and the Nunavut Planning and Project Assessment Act.

We play an important role in shaping the future of Nunavut, Canada's youngest and largest territory. The NIRB provides its employees with significant opportunities for job satisfaction, personal growth & career advancement.

THE ROLE: Reporting to the Director, Technical Services, the Technical Advisor undertakes impact assessments of proposed development projects throughout the Nunavut Settlement Area, a jurisdiction comprising 1/5 of Canada.

- Coordinates and conducts the impact assessment of proposed projects
- Coordinates and conducts the monitoring for approved developments
- Organizes and facilitates meetings with regulatory agencies and stakeholders
- Coordinates with federal, territorial and local governments and citizens of Nunavut
- Liaises and communicates with affected communities and interested parties

THE QUALIFICATIONS: The successful candidate will possess expert knowledge in impact assessment procedures and processes, a high level of written and verbal communication skills to exchange information with a variety of professional, technical and public audiences, and a Graduate Degree in Environmental Management, Environmental Studies or related area(s) supplemented with several years experience in a similar position.

THE REWARDS: The successful candidate will be rewarded with a very competitive salary, an excellent benefits program, Northern Living Allowance, Vacation Travel Assistance and a place on a highly motivated team of environmental professionals.

THE ADVENTURE: Experience life on the edge of the Northwest Passage in the hamlet of Cambridge Bay, an economic hub for the region's active resource sector. Cambridge Bay is also known as Iqaluttutiaq or 'good fishing place', a community in every sense of the word where recreational opportunities abound. Indulge in fishing, hiking, kayaking, kite-skiing, snowmobiling or just sit back and marvel at the Northern Lights - working for the NIRB in Cambridge Bay provides access to a true Arctic adventure!

Priority consideration is given to Nunavut Inuit. Positions may be filled at Technical Advisor I or Technical Advisor II classifications or may remain unfilled if a suitable candidate is not found. Full position descriptions are available online at www.nirb.ca/careers
